IN RE:	Application of RD&J Communications,)	ORDER
	Inc. for a Certificate of Public)	APPROVING
	Convenience and Necessity.)	NAME CHANGE

By Order No. 90-1177 dated December 18, 1990, in the instant Docket, the Public Service Commission of South Carolina (the Commission) granted a Certificate of Public Convenience and Necessity to RD&J Communications Management, Inc. (the Company) to operate as a reseller of telecommunications services in the State of South Carolina. Thereafter, upon request of the Company, the Commission issued Order No. 92-752 on September 3, 1992, which approved the Company's name change to "RD&J Communications Management Group, Inc." Thereafter, at the request of the Company, the Commission issued Order No. 92-938 dated October 30, 1992, which approved the Company's name change to "RD&J Communication Investment Group, Inc."

By letter dated February 22, 1994, the Company requests that the Commission approve the following name change:

FROM:	RD&J Communication Investment Group, Inc.
TO:	RD&J Communications, Inc.

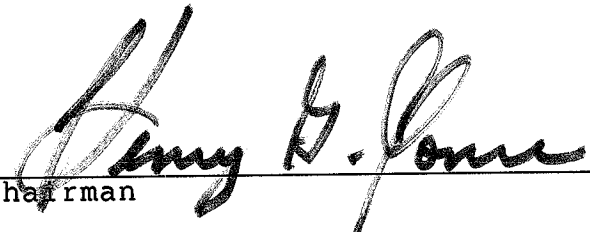

According to the Company, the request for a name change will not affect its business affairs as it relates to its authority to operate in South Carolina.

The Commission has considered the Company's request and hereby approves the requested name change. The Commission's records will reflect said change.

This Order shall remain in full force and effect until further Order of the Commission.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
